margin, seven. Gillett was sworn in by William E. Green, Massachusetts, one of the oldest members of the house.

Gillett's election ended the deadlock which lasted two days following the successful demand of progressives for free debate and a chance to vote on liberalization of the house rules.

Progressive Leader Reads Statement

As soon as the house met at noon today Representative Nelson, Wisconsin, progressive leader, read to the house a statement covering the progressive understanding of the proposal made yesterday by Representative Longworth, majority floor leader. This statement provided that the fullest opportunity for debate on amendment of the rules would be provided after thirty days of consideration by the rules committee of amendments presented by individual members. During that thirty days the rules of the last house will govern.

Immediately after the reading, Representative Garner, Texas democrat, asked Representative Longworth whether he agreed "willingly." The democrats rocked with laughter.

"I agree with the interpretation just read by the gentleman from Wisconsin," said Longworth.

Cooper Withdraws From Contest

Then Representative Cooper, progressive candidate for speaker, asked permission to withdraw from the contest. In a brief speech he said the progressives were not seeking to be obstructionists but merely wanted a chance to vote on the rules.

Representative Beggs, Ohio, interrupted Cooper to demand the regular order.

"I hope," interposed Representative Madden, Illinois, "that no technical objections will be made."

Cooper then completed his speech of withdrawal and the calling of the roll began.

Cheer When Beggs Votes for Gillett
There was cheering as Beggs, Wisconsin, the first of the progressives, voted for Gillett.

This was repeated a moment later when Brown, also of Wisconsin, another progressive, swung to Gillett.

There was a storm of applause when Nelson, the progressive leader, voted for Gillett.

Fourteen progressives who have been voting for Cooper switched to Gillett and made his election certain before the ninth ballot was completed.

PREMIER BALDWIN'S STOCK GOES UP ON EVE OF ELECTION

(By United Press)
London, Dec. 5.—Premier Baldwin's stock went up today on the eve of the general election.

The conservatives now are expected to obtain a majority of 40. Lloyd George is certain to gain many seats, but his party still remains in the minority.

Betting on the stock exchanges as the campaigners finished in a whirl of frantic campaigning was as follows:

Four to one on the conservatives.

Three to one against the liberals.

Two hundred to one against labor.

Baldwin is believed to be sure to get his return to power which means Great Britain may try an adjustable and protective tariff for its domestic mills.

SENATE COMMITTEE ON VETERANS' BUREAU

Washington, Dec. 5.—The senate committee investigating the veterans' bureau today formally refused to hear further testimony for or against former director of the bureau Charles R. Forbes or persons accused with him.

Chairman Reed of the committee revealed the fact that the department of justice had promised "immediate action" and ruled "it was unnecessary and inadvisable for the committee to hear further testimony either to develop or refute charges made in the committee's hearings."

PROGRESSIVES ARE OUT-NUMBERED

Washington, Dec. 5.—Progressives have been out-numbered in their first clash with administration republicans of the senate.

Unable to organize their powers, the senate progressives have tactically decided to abandon their proposed fight over Senator Cummins holding two of the biggest senate jobs—presidency of the senate and chairmanship of the interstate commerce commission.

When the progressives went to La Follette, their leader, confined to his home with an attack of grippe, he told them it was useless to boost him to the chairmanship of the interstate commerce committee if they did not give him enough backing on the committee to put up a fight for progressive railroad legislation.

La Follette advised his lieutenants to kick up a fight over something so that they could hold their power over the heads of the republicans to force state progressive representation on the committee just as the house progressives did successfully. But most of the progressives are new to senate procedure and have too little experience in legislative dickering to swing the deal for La Follette. They are unable to wedge themselves into the position of power.

La Follette is eager to get back on the scene so that he can rally his wavering group about him to a determined stand to prove to the senate just as in the house that he holds the big balance of power.

Otto Wiedfeldt, German ambassador here, recently approached the American government through Secretary Hughes on the question of Germany's need for a great food production.

The maximum figure that Germany will need according to information received by this government is $70,000,000.

FIVE SECRET INDICTMENTS

RETURNED BY STEARNS COUNTY GRAND JURY IN LAKE HENRY BANK INVESTIGATION

(By United Press)

St. Cloud, Dec. 5.—Five secret indictments were returned by the Stearns county grand jury in the Lake Henry State bank investigation involving $34,000 shortage in the bank's funds some months ago.

The arrest of former Cashier Leo Neutzling is expected tonight. It is said in all five indictments only one man is mentioned—Neutzling.

The investigation by the grand jury was brought about by the request of State Superintendent of Banks A. J. Veigel who requested a complete investigation be made of the rumors that the alleged embezzlement of about $34,000 about two months ago had been "hushed up" and that directors and friends of Neutzling had made good the shortage.

At the time of the alleged embezzlement an investigation was made but the bank's funds apparently were intact only certain books in the possession of Neutzling being missed.

Neutzling claimed that the bank had been robbed.

PLUMBER ALLEGED TO HAVE LIVED A DOUBLE LIFE

(By United Press)

Minneapolis, Dec. 5.—A shooting affray this morning in the apartment of Miss Marie Naddan here revealed the alleged double life lived by James W. Gibson, prominent former Rochester, Minn., business man.

Police say Miss Naddan made a complete confession of the shooting claiming she grasped the revolver from Gibson's hand and shot him when he told her he was going to kill her.

Miss Naddan claimed that Gibson maintained the apartment in which she lived and bought her clothes. She also said they had been living together here for several months.

Gibson, according to information here, has a wife and a four-year-old son living in Rochester.

Gibson was highly respected in Rochester where he formerly was engaged in the plumbing business until recently when he sold his shop and came to Minneapolis to accept a position as traveling salesman for a wholesale plumbing concern.

According to the story told police here Gibson spent his time about equally between the two homes.

Miss Naddan, who is a powerful woman and strikingly attractive, formerly lived at Owatonna where her parents now reside. She is being held in jail pending further investigation.

Gibson's condition was said to be serious. He was shot through the abdomen and is suffering intense pain. Physicians have decided not to remove the bullet until internal bleeding has stopped.

LAKE WATERWAY PROJECT ACTION HERALDED DEC. 20

CANADA IS EXPECTED TO BRING FAVORABLE INFLUENCE TO BEAR

DIRECTOR CRAIG GIVES A REVIEW OF PRESENT CONDITIONS

(By United Press)

Minneapolis, Dec. 5.—Development of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence deep waterway project proposed to establish a shipping route for ocean steamers from Duluth to Europe, and now hinging on Canadian government action, will be brought to head when the matter is considered at the annual council meeting of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater association at Chicago, Dec. 20. Charles P. Craig, vice president and executive director of the association, said today.

Further influence toward establishment of the project will be brought to bear from the Canadian side at the annual meeting of the Canadian Deep Waterways and Power association about the middle of December; and with the enlisted aid of Premier G. Howard Ferguson, head of the provincial government of Ontario, and Sir Adam Beck, head of the Hydro-Electric Power commission of Ontario, Canadian authorities predict that "within a reasonably short time, the matter will no longer be delayed by the Canadian government."

"Our friends in congress tell us that as soon as Canada acts favorably, there will be no difficulty in passing suitable legislation," Mr. Craig, director of the Great Lakes association, said. "Action at the council meeting in Chicago will be confined to presenting information, confirming and solidifying public opinion and doing whatever is necessary to prepare the way for immediate action by congress."

"The cause of the Canadian delay emanates from the influence of the merchant marine and transportation interests in Montreal," Frank H. Keefe, executive vice-president of the Canadian Deep Waterways and Power association, said. "They are selfishly thinking of their own interests, and are doing their utmost to delay the work; but the strongest opponents now admit that it must go on. They cannot delay it much longer."

Reasons given by Canadian and American authorities why the governments cannot delay the matter longer are as follows:

Canada votes each year millions of dollars to prosecute completion of the new Welland ship canal, which will be of little value unless the St. Lawrence waterway is likewise improved.

The Canadian west is beginning to realize it is paying more annually in unnecessary high freight rates than it would cost the whole of Canada to complete the project.

The province of Ontario has no black coal, and is facing a shortage of white coal (power), for which the only remedy is an increase in resource by development of the St. Lawrence.

In New York, the center of the opposition in the United States, there has been a marked moderation of the offensive tone.

A comprehensive educational campaign in the New England states, sponsored by the Associated Industries of Massachusetts and Connecticut Manufacturers, has been started, to create favorable public sentiment. There are few places now in the entire region of the Mississippi valley, from the Rocky mountains to the Alleghenies, where the situation leaves anything to be desired, Mr. Craig said.

The Canadian association is working in full accord with the Great Lakes association in furthering the project, according to O. E. Fleming,

SKETCH OF PRESIDENT IN NEW DIRECTORY IS NINE AND HALF LINES

Washington, Dec. 5.—Sidelights on the "human side" of government officials and members of the new congress are not lacking in the biographical sketches published in the new congressional directory.

The sketch of President Coolidge is conspicuous for its brevity, the nine and a half lines consuming about half the space used for most of the cabinet members. Cramped into the Coolidge sketch is a personal and official summary closing with his accession to the presidency Aug. 3.

For brevity among congressional sketches, those of Senator Caraway, Democrat, Arkansas, and Representative Mead, Democrat, New York, are close rivals. The former's reads:

"T. Caraway, Democrat, Jonesboro," and the latter's, "James M. Mead, Democrat, Buffalo, N. Y."

Husbands Have Money Bachelors Are 'Broke'

Minneapolis, Dec. 5.—Matrimony has again triumphed over single blessedness.

"For instance," Municipal Judge C. L. Smith said today, "heed the records of this court."

Fifty-three men, 12 of them married and 41 bachelors, were arraigned before Judge Smith yesterday on charges of intoxication.

When the trials were over and the smoke had cleared away, all 12 of the married men had paid fines. One of the bachelors had enough money to pay his fine, but the other 40 exhibited empty pockets and went to the workhouse.

LA FOLLETTE HEAD FARMER-LABORITES McADOO DEMOCRAT

REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS ALSO PREPARED MINORITY TICKETS

WILL HAVE HIRAM JOHNSON AND HENRY FORD AS THEIR HEADS

(By United Press)

Pierre, S. D., Dec. 5.—South Dakota today leads the other states of the union in the selection of candidates for the 1924 presidential election.

There were majority slates adopted by the republican, democratic and farmer-labor parties of the state at their "propositional convention" here, as follows:

Republicans: For president, Calvin Coolidge; vice-president, Senator Arthur Capper, Kansas; for United States Senator, Governor W. H. McMaster, South Dakota.

Democrats: For president, William G. McAdoo, son-in-law of Woodrow Wilson and now of California for vice-president, James W. Gerard, New York City.

Farmer-Labor: For president Senator Robert M. LaFollette, Wisconsin; vice-president, Senator Frazier, North Dakota; for United States Senator, Tom Ayres, leader of the farmer-labor movement.

The republicans and democrats also prepared minority tickets which will have Senator Hiram Johnson of California and Henry Ford of Detroit as their heads.

Coolidge received approximately 50,000 votes compared with more than 27,000 for Johnson.

McAdoo was given 39,972 votes against 5,192 for Ford.

The farmer-labor party gave LaFollette 31,999 votes while Ford received 7,346.

Efforts to bring about a fusion of the democrats and farmer-labor forces in behalf of Ford failed.

Platforms were adopted by the three parties and the candidates are required by law to sign acceptance of their nominations and platform in order that their names are submitted to the voters in the primaries.

Many democrats and farmer-labor delegates continued discussions. The former are expected to select Hugh S. Cherry of Sioux Falls, as their majority candidate for the United States Senate.

More than a score of farmer-labor candidates broke away from the main body and are seeking a coalition with the democratic minority.

PRESIDENT SAYS HE WILL ACKNOWLEDGE NOTIFICATION

Washington, Dec. 5.—President Coolidge will acknowledge official notification of the action of the South Dakota state republican convention yesterday in selecting him as the preferred candidate for the republican presidential nomination if such a notification is sent him, it was learned at the White House today.

This was interpreted to mean that announcement of Mr. Coolidge's candidacy will come within a few days. News of the Coolidge victory in South Dakota's convention yesterday was received with undisguised satisfaction at the White House.

Democrats in the state proposal convention finally declined to accept a fusion with the insurgent farmer-laborites and named a complete ticket. It is:

For United States senate: U. S. G. Cherry; for congressman, first district, John Stedronsky; for congressman second district, J. P. Rhinehard; for congressman third district, John R. Russel, and for governor, Andrew S. Anderson, Clay county.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Side-lights on the "human side" of government officials and members of the new congress are not lacking in the biographical sketches published in the new congressional directory.

The sketch of President Coolidge is conspicuous for its brevity, the nine and a half lines consuming about half the space used for most of the cabinet members. Cramped into the Coolidge sketch is a personal and official summary closing with his accession to the presidency Aug. 3.

For brevity among congressional sketches, those of Senator Caraway, Democrat, Arkansas, and Representative Mead, Democrat, New York, are close rivals. The former's reads: "T. Caraway, Democrat, Jonesboro," and the latter's, "James M. Mead, Democrat, Buffalo, N. Y."

Husbands Have Money Bachelors Are 'Broke'

Minneapolis, Dec. 5.—Matrimony has again triumphed over single blessedness.

"For instance," Municipal Judge C. L. Smith said today, "heed the records of this court."

Fifty-three men, 12 of them married and 41 bachelors, were arraigned before Judge Smith yesterday on charges of intoxication.

When the trials were over and the smoke had cleared away, all 12 of the married men had paid fines. One of the bachelors had enough money to pay his fine, but the other 40 exhibited empty pockets and went to the workhouse.

THE STATE BANK OF ALEXANDRIA CLOSED

BOARD OF DIRECTORS DECIDE ON A TEMPORARY CLOSING OF INSTITUTION

(By United Press) St. Paul, Dec. 5.—The State bank of Alexandria today was closed by the decision of the board of directors according to information received at the office of the state superintendent of banks.

The bank was formerly the Parkington State bank. It was closed on April 15th, 1922, and reopened under its present name Dec. 4, 1922.

The bank has a total deposit of $200,000. T. A. Syvrd is president and C. A. Prestrud cashier.

At the time of its re-organization the report said certificates of deposit totaling $80,000 were given to depositors payable one year from date. The year was up yesterday, and the directors decided on a temporary closing. A meeting of stockholders will be held Monday.

3 UNIVERSITIES SCORE AT THE LIVESTOCK SHOW

(By United Press) Chicago, Dec. 5.—Universities of Minnesota, Iowa and Indiana scored today in the international livestock exposition college experiments, Purdue university, LaFollette, Indiana, captured first prize for the best five cattle, five hogs and five sheep. Iowa was second and Minnesota third.

Minnesota received first prize for the best five barrows winning over ten competitors. Iowa was second and Indiana third. Anderson and Sons, Tyler, Minn., won first prize for the best three year old Aberdeen-Angus cow.

president of the Canadian Deep Waterways and Power association. "Everybody here is in entire sympathy with, and desires to co-operate with the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater association, which has done a most magnificent work for the welfare of the two countries," he said."

LAFOLLETTE HEADS FARMER-LABORITES McADOO DEMOCRATS

REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS ALSO PREPARED MINORITY TICKETS

WILL HAVE HIRAM JOHNSON AND HENRY FORD AS THEIR HEADS

(By United Press) Pierre, S. D., Dec. 5.—South Dakota today leads the other states of the union in the selection of candidates for the 1924 presidential election.

There were majority slates adopted by the republican, democratic and farmer-labor parties of the state and their "proposal convention" here, as follows:

Republicans: For president, Calvin Coolidge; vice-president, Senator Arthur Capper, Kansas; for United States Senator, Governor W. H. McMaster, South Dakota.

Democrats: For president, William G. McAdoo, son-in-law of Woodrow Wilson and now of California for vice-president, James W. Gerard, New York City.

Farmer-Labor: For president Senator Robert M. LaFollette, Wisconsin; vice-president, Senator Frazier, North Dakota; for United States Senator, Tom Ayres, leader of the farmer-labor movement.

The republicans and democrats also prepared minority tickets which will have Senator Hiram Johnson of California and Henry Ford of Detroit as their heads.

Coolidge received approximately 50,000 votes compared with more than 27,000 for Johnson.

McAdoo was given 39,972 votes against 5,192 for Ford.

The farmer-labor party gave LaFollette 31,999 votes while Ford received 7,346.

Efforts to bring about a fusion of the democrats and farmer-labor forces in behalf of Ford failed.

Platforms were adopted by the three parties and the candidates are required by law to sign acceptance of their nominations and platform in order that their names are submitted to the voters in the primaries.

Many democrats and farmer-labor delegates continued discussions. The former are expected to select H. S. Cherry of Sioux Falls, as their majority candidate for the United States Senate.

More than a score of farmer-labor candidates broke away from the main body and are seeking a coalition with the democratic minority.

PRESIDENT SAYS HE WILL ACKNOWLEDGE NOTIFICATION

Washington, Dec. 5.—President Coolidge will acknowledge official notification of the action of the South Dakota state republican convention yesterday in selecting him as the preferred candidate for the republican presidential nomination if such a notification is sent him, it was learned at the White House today.

This was interpreted to mean that announcement of Mr. Coolidge's candidacy will come within a few days.

News of the Coolidge victory in South Dakota's convention yesterday was received with undisguised satisfaction at the White House.

Democrats in the state proposal convention finally declined to accept a fusion with the insurgent farmer-laborites and named a complete ticket. It is:

For United States senate: U. S. G. Cherry; for congressman, first district, John Stedronsky; for congressman second district, J. P. Rhinehard; for congressman third district, John R. Russel, and for governor, Andrew S. Anderson, Clay county.

REOPENING JANUARY 7TH

Building Committee at School Board Meeting Reports Many Improvements Made

The public schools of the city will close for the two-weeks holiday vacation on Friday, December 21st, as decided by the board of education at its regular monthly meeting last Monday.

The building committee of the board reported that lavatories, ordered purchased in October, are being placed, and that toilet fixtures for the boys toilet in the Washington building, authorized at the last board meeting, have been ordered, and will no doubt arrive in time for installation during the Christmas vacation.

This committee recommended that two slop sinks, with hot and cold water runs, be placed on the second and third floors of the Washington building, so that janitors will be able to do more efficient and quicker work, than is possible under present conditions.

Water for cleaning purposes is now carried from the basement to the first, second and third floor, and carried down again to be dumped. The building committee was instructed to have this work done and to have drinking fountains installed on the third floor. Two additional electric light fixtures of special design were ordered placed over each basket in the gymnasium.

The chairman of the building committee mentioned a necessity providing additional help for the janitor of the Lowell building, and on motion this matter of providing additional help for Mr. Erickson was left to the board members of the third ward, with power to act.

Supt. W. C. Cobb submitted the monthly report on the condition of the book room for November, which was accepted and placed on file, as was also the November report of the school nurse.

The secretary was directed to notify the Mahlum Lumber Co., not to deliver any more wood to the school buildings until such time as the committee on fuel, supplies and printing has an opportunity to inspect the wood already delivered.

The teachers committee in conjunction with the superintendent was authorized, with power to act, to hire an additional instructor for U. S. Veterans Bureau work, this to be done when the officers of the board are satisfied that it is absolutely necessary.

The president was directed by motion to appoint a special committee to work out an expense account to be allowed instructors in the veterans bureau work for traveling expenses, use of automobile, etc.

Superintendent Cobb was authorized to start classes of citizenship for aliens as soon as a minimum of ten signify their interest in such a class and desire to take up the work.

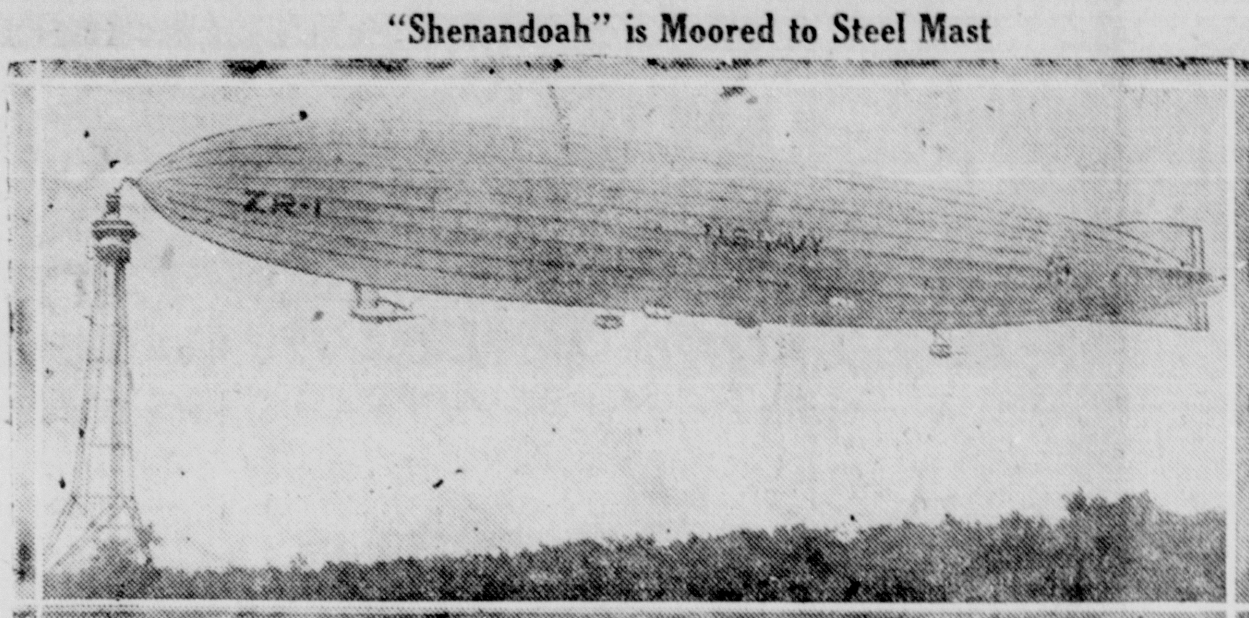

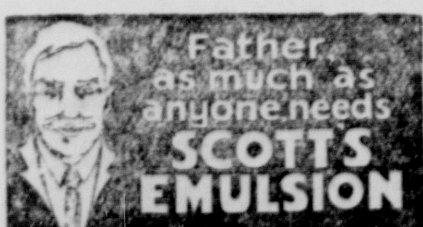

The building committee was directed to have the bleacher seats in the gymnasium finished and improved in appearance to conform with the rest of the fixtures in the room.

The special committee on compensation to be paid the secretary of the board on account of the extra reported that it had fixed this compensation at $25 per month for the work made by the Veterans Bureau present.

The board adjourned after allowing the usual grist of bills. Those members absent at Monday's meeting included Mrs. A. H. Anderson, Mrs. W. H. Gemmell, S. A. Stanley and K. S. Bredenberg.

Call of Wilds Separates Former Governor of Michigan and Wife

Because Chase S. Osborn, the former governor of Michigan, is a good deal of a "barbarian" and a lover of the great outdoors, he and his wife have agreed to separate, despite the fact that they have been married for more than 40 years. Mr. Osborn's fortune of more than a million dollars, has been divided between his wife and their two sons and two daughters.

MARKETS BY TRUCK; TO VOTE FOR ROADS

SENATOR JOHNSON'S HIGHWAY TRIP WITH LOAD OF HOGS WILL CINCHE BALLOT

Will Senator Magnus Johnson vote for good roads, for increased federal highway aid?

He certainly will—so decided the other farmers who waited with him at the South St. Paul stockyards the other morning for a turn at the unloading chutes which are constantly being enlarged to handle increasing farm truck deliveries of live stock.

Senator Johnson that morning hauled a load of hogs by truck from his farm near Kimball, a distance of 75 miles and the larger mileage over paved highways. He chose the high road in preference to the railroad in spite of a drenching rain. His overalls and hat were rain-soaked but he was in good humor as always and challenged, "I've got the best load of hogs in Minnesota and they're worth more than $6.75." He got within 10 cents of top price.

After farmer friends shook hands they ventured belief that he will be sure to vote for good roads at home when he sits in the sessions on post roads and federal road aid, judging from the use he makes of the better roads.

After selling his hogs, Senator Johnson hurried away to don his senatorial togs and meet the Swedish archbishop who was a visitor in St. Paul. Farmer Johnson always carries with him full senatorial equipment when on business excursions. Knowing that the comfortable old overalls and slouch hat are not exactly in keeping with political etiquette, there is in his grip a good suit and changes of linen.

IF KIDNEYS BOTHER TRY DOSE OF SALTS

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Too much rich food creates acids which clog the kidney pores so that they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood. Then you get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage, or attended by a sensation of scalding, begin to drink soft water in quantities; also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone can take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby often preventing serious kidney complications. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

YOU CAN'T SUIT EVERYBODY

THE present mild winter may just suit the city dweller, but it causes a heap of trouble for the farmer, logger and the workman. Even the city dwellers are not united on this balmy brand of weather. Witness the dealer in seasonable merchandise and the poor coal man.

As to the out of town people handicapped, the Bemidji Pioneer says:

"Don't throw your hat in the air because of the fine weather. Think! If you had a few hundred cords of wood to get out of a swamp before spring you would be praying for snow. If you had a farm on which the fields are so dry the ground is like powder, you would hope for rainfall and snow and moisture in any form. Therefore, before you think how wonderful the weather is for the city dweller, think how wonderful the weather is NOT for the workman, the farmer, the logger, in fact, for all the people upon whom towns thrive here in northern Minnesota."

LITTLE FALLS ELKS HOME

To Little Falls goes the credit of planning, financing, building and dedicating their beautiful home within a span of eight months. This is a record seldom achieved by any fraternal body and speaks well for the progressive spirit shown in our neighboring city.

The dedication of this splendid home on the bank of the Mississippi about a block south of the Buckman hotel will be held on Wednesday evening, December 12.

Brainerd Elksdom will be largely represented at the festivities, if for no other reason than to catch some of the spirit which wrought such wonders in constructive work in lodge circles.

Dr. E. W. Kalisher is exalted ruler and under his guidance, backed by the support of officers and members, enthusiasm is generated and maintained. A class of 50 is to be initiated this week.

VERSES WIN HIS PARDON

SOME people can turn out good work when forced to concentrate upon the task in hand. John Bunyan wrote his Pilgrim's Progress when confined in jail. So, in like manner, Clarence Alexander Rea, a convict in an eastern penitentiary, was impelled to write and he turned out such good verse that it won his freedom.

The pardon board scanned his poetry and it was really of such creditable composition that they voted him free. A Philadelphia publisher issued two volumes of Rea's writings.

In its recommendation the board said that a man with the spiritual quality shown in the poetry presented them, evidently had found his way to regeneration. Rea is a graduate of Purdue university, LaFayette, Indiana, had been fond of literature, but had never written a line until imprisoned.

THE VALUE OF AN EDITORIAL

EDITORIALS are of value when they induce action resulting in good to the community. The Dispatch, for instance, championed keeping intact the court house site and citizens, quick to sense the appeal, made an effective plea to the county commissioners.

Another case concerned the extension of the tourist season. Three months, June, July and August, are altogether too short. The argument of the Dispatch were taken up by the Minneapolis Journal, Minneapolis Tribune, Duluth Herald and other large papers and eventually the 10,000 Lakes of Minnesota association went on record extending the season from May to November.

ENGLAND'S ELECTION

WITH England's election due in a few days, no one ventures to forecast the results. So many doubtful factors enter into the polling and no decided swing has been shown any way.

Free trade and constituencies are the two big issues. There are also three-cornered contests in 262 constituencies. What all seem agreed about is that no party will be able to form a stable government. As deadlocks seem to be the fashion in legislative bodies, a coalition element may have to be fostered to form a government which may give Lloyd George a chance to become premier.

"MEDICAL DIPLOMA MILLS"

"MEDICAL diploma mills" have been busy grinding out quack doctors and it has moved the Missouri state board of health to take action and revoke the charters of three such institutions.

Other states are taking steps to stop this unnatural growth of fake medical practitioners. Some, it is asserted, have even gained federal jobs. Many, taking their so-called "diplomas," have entered Mexico and other countries of South America to "practice."

Attention to the whole sorry matter was called when one fake doctor gave a patient an overdose of ether.

THE GREAT PROBLEM

BRAINERD needs a new high school. That fact is patent to all.

The greatest problem connected with this project, as stated by President George D. LaBar of the board of education, is not the financing nor the architectural work, but to get all parts of the city agreed upon a suitable location.

No starving people ever appealed in vain for help from America. This nation has spent millions in relief work in Europe and Asia. America has not been hard on the allies of Europe, for it has carried the interest of war debts owing to it from many countries. It is at peace with all the world and its neighbors use no armament to mark a boundary line.

AUTO TAGS AVERAGE $16.20 SET THIS YEAR

MINNESOTA REGISTERING OVER 15 PER CENT MORE MOTOR VEHICLES

Minnesota will register an increase of more than 60,000 motor vehicles this year over last, better than 15 per cent gain, but will collect on them only about $675,000 more taxes, a gain of about 10 per cent in revenue. The average car owner this year is paying $16.20 auto tax—less than in other years.

A total of 445,872 licenses at $7.218,827.30 were issued to Nov. 1, against 386,466 at $6,543,125.50 for all 1922, according to official figures this week from the office of Mike Holm, secretary of state.

Motor vehicle licenses, as is generally known, are the only tax on cars and trucks in Minnesota and the only direct levy for state trunk highway—or Babcock road—improvement and maintenance. The receipts this year average slightly more than $1,000 for each mile in the trunk system which carries four-fifths of the highway traffic in the state and is correspondingly expensive to improve and keep up.

Trunk highway income this year, it is pointed out, would total $800,000 more at an average tax of $18 as agreed under Good Roads Amendment No. 1. In other words, by paying an average of $1.80 more taxes on each machine the car and truck owners would have returned an additional $800,000 of highway betterments.

This year's increase in the number of automobiles and trucks is the largest of record in Minnesota, but predictions are that continuance of the good roads program and return of normal conditions will support it for several years to come. In spite of the big gain in number, this state has a smaller number of cars in proportion to population than many others, notably Iowa, while New York and California now list more than 1,000,000 cars each.

Foolish, at Least

"The liquor you used to get in Crimson Gulch would make a man crazy."

"It's different now," mused Cactus Joe. "A man has to be kind of crazy before he'd think of swallowing it."

"Don't throw your hat in the air because of the fine weather. Think! If you had a few hundred cords of wood to get out of a swamp before spring you would be praying for snow. If you had a farm on which the fields are so dry the ground is like powder, you would hope for rainfall and snow and moisture in any form. Therefore, before you think how wonderful the weather is for the city dweller, think how wonderful the weather is NOT for the workman, the farmer, the logger, in fact, for all the people upon whom towns thrive here in northern Minnesota."

LITTLE FALLS ELKS HOME

To Little Falls goes the credit of planning, financing, building and dedicating their beautiful home within a span of eight months. This is a record seldom achieved by any fraternal body and speaks well for the progressive spirit shown in our neighboring city.

The dedication of this splendid home on the bank of the Mississippi about a block south of the Buckman hotel will be held on Wednesday evening, December 12.

Brainerd Elksdom will be largely represented at the festivities, if for no other reason than to catch some of the spirit which wrought such wonders in constructive work in lodge circles.

Dr. E. W. Kallher is exalted ruler and under his guidance, backed by the support of officers and members, enthusiasm is generated and maintained. A class of 50 is to be initiated this week.

VERSES WIN HIS PARDON

SOME people can turn out good work when forced to concentrate upon the task in hand. John Bunyan wrote his Pilgrim's Progress when confined in jail. So, in like manner, Clarence Alexander Rea, a convict in an eastern penitentiary, was impelled to write and he turned out such good verse that it won his freedom.

The pardon board scanned his poetry and it was really of such creditable composition that they voted him free. A Philadelphia publisher issued two volumes of Rea's writings.

In its recommendation the board said that a man with the spiritual quality shown in the poetry presented them, evidently had found his way to regeneration. Rea is a graduate of Purdue university, LaFayette, Indiana, had been fond of literature, but had never written a line until imprisoned.

THE VALUE OF AN EDITORIAL

EDITORIALS are of value when they induce action resulting in good to the community. The Dispatch, for instance, championed keeping intact the court house site and citizens, quick to sense the appeal, made an effective plea to the county commissioners.

Another case concerned the extension of the tourist season. Three months, June, July and August, are altogether too short. The argument of the Dispatch were taken up by the Minneapolis Journal, Minneapolis Tribune, Duluth Herald and other large papers and eventually the 10,000 Lakes of Minnesota association went on record extending the season from May to November.

ENGLAND'S ELECTION

WITH England's election due in a few days, no one ventures to forecast the results. So many doubtful factors enter into the polling and no decided swing has been shown any way.

Free trade and constituencies are the two big issues. There are also three-cornered contests in 262 constituencies. What all seem agreed about is that no party will be able to form a stable government. As deadlocks seem to be the fashion in legislative bodies, a coalition element may have to be fostered to form a government which may give Lloyd George a chance to again be premier.

"MEDICAL DIPLOMA MILLS"

"MEDICAL diploma mills" have been busy grinding out quack doctors and it has moved the Missouri state board of health to take action and revoke the charters of three such institutions.

Other states are taking steps to stop this unnatural growth of fake medical practitioners. Some, it is asserted, have even gained federal jobs. Many, taking their so-called "diplomas," have entered Mexico and other countries of South America to "practice."

Attention to the whole sorry matter was called when one fake doctor gave a patient an overdose of ether.

THE GREAT PROBLEM

BRAINERD needs a new high school. That fact is patent to all.

The greatest problem connected with this project, as stated by President George D. LaBar of the board of education, is not the financing nor the architectural work, but to get all parts of the city agreed upon a suitable location.

No starving people ever appealed in vain for help from America. This nation has spent millions in relief work in Europe and Asia. America has not been hard on the allies of Europe, for it has carried the interest of war debts owing to it from many countries. It is at peace with all the world and its neighbors use no armament to mark a boundary line.

MINNESOTA REGISTERING OVER 15 PER CENT MORE MOTOR VEHICLES

Minnesota will register an increase of more than 60,000 motor vehicles this year over last, better than 15 per cent gain, but will collect on them only about $675,000 more taxes, a gain of about 16 per cent in revenue. The average car owner this year is paying $16.20 auto tax—less than in other years.

A total of 445,872 licenses at $7.218,827.30 were issued to Nov. 1, against 386,466 at $6,543,125.50 for all 1922, according to official figures this week from the office of Mike Holm, secretary of state.

Motor vehicle licenses, as is generally known, are the only tax on cars and trucks in Minnesota and the only direct levy for state trunk highway—or Babcock road—improvement and maintenance. The receipts this year average slightly more than $1,000 for each mile in the trunk system which carries four-fifths of the highway traffic in the state and is correspondingly expensive to improve and keep up.

Trunk highway income this year, it is pointed out, would total $800,000 more at an average tax of $18 as agreed under Good Roads Amendment No. 1. In other words, by paying an average of $1.80 more taxes on each machine the car and truck owners would have returned an additional $800,000 of highway betterments.

This year's increase in the number of automobiles and trucks is the largest of record in Minnesota, but predictions are that continuance of the good roads program and return of normal conditions will support it for several years to come. In spite of the big gain in number, this state has a smaller number of cars in proportion to population than many others, notably Iowa, while New York and California now list more than 1,000,000 cars each.

Foolish, at Least

"The liquor you used to get in Crimson Gulch would make a man crazy."

"It's different now," mused Cactus Joe. "A man has to be kind of crazy before he'd think of swallowing it."—Washington Star.

BRAINERD'S ODDEST STORIES OF TODAY

George Trent Sr. and Bill Lyman had an experience duck shooting which they related to their friend, W. H. Cleary. They were out at the John Westover location west of Crookston and were attacked by a flock of ducks. Using bills and wings, the birds proved decidedly vicious and the hunters were so engrossed in beating back the birds while engaged in such close quarters that they forgot to shoot. Reports now received from Crookston are to the effect that hunters are wearing baseball masks to protect themselves.

Walks 100 Miles on Peg Leg to Confess Theft

Driven to desperation by hunger and his inability of finding employment, Will Miller was compelled to steal $2.60 worth of bread and cheese at a grocery store in East Point, near Atlanta. Later he arrived at Macon still seeking work and the thought of his theft so preyed on his mind that he determined to return. He walked the 100 miles and surrendered himself to the authorities. An Atlanta bank president heard of the story, was instrumental in having the man discharged from the bar of justice and then advanced him money to aid him in finding work. Miller is now certain that honesty is the best policy.

It was recently dedicated to the Boy Scouts of that city and "forever set aside," says the Cheyenne Tribune, "for the perpetuation of sturdy young American manhood." THE AUTHORITY IN FIRE ARMS, AMMUNITION AND CUTLERY

A DOG AND AN IMITATION MAN

Rex, if there is a dog heaven, has gone there, declares a writer in the Courier, Evansville, Ind., who continues:

The vaserined sleek imitation of a man who killed Rex will undoubtedly have more trouble passing the pearly gates promised to mortal man than Rex encountered in his journey beyond the Styx, and the bare-kneed flapper, who should have been at her mother's side instead of "joy riding," who laughed.

When the last stragglers were packing their wares preparatory to departure after a hard day at the Fourth Street market, a crippled Negro, whose duty it is to clean up the refuse and debris left behind, appeared.

The rattletrap old wagon is a landmark to marketeers. The ancient half-blind horse is another familiar object, and Rex, the collie mongrel, was as much a part of the combination as the Great Dipper is a part of the brilliant galaxy of the heavens.

One box of refuse had been dumped into the wagon, another was on its way. The horse, half asleep, was only prevented from becoming entirely so by the sharp barks of the faithful old dog.

An automobile turned the corner. A sleek, sissified "sheik" was at the wheel.

The automobile swung from its path to deliberately strike the dog, who, in his ignorance of man's ways, might have been a foot or two nearer the middle of the street than he should have been.

An agonized cry in the night! A laugh from the girl and a smirk of satisfaction on the driver's face as the machine sped away in violation of the city's speed laws!

There was no smile on the Negro's face as he tenderly lifted the broken and dead thing that he loved. Neither was there a smile or smirk on the face of any of those who halted to watch the tottering old Negro tenderly fold his arms around this faithful old dog and weep—as a mother might weep at the bier of her beloved.

Rex is gone. His slayer is free. Our Dumb Animals.

$20,000 DAMAGE TO BANE BLOCK

Early Morning Fire Brings Losses to Bane Building and Garage, and to Bowling Alley

FIREMEN DO HEROIC WORK

Water Pressure Excellent, and Flames Eventually Controlled in Spite of Head Wind

E. C. Bane suffered a loss of what is estimated at more than $20,000 when fire at four o'clock Wednesday morning destroyed the interior of the Bane Auto Co., 218-220 South Seventh street, including new automobiles, stock of tires and auto accessories.

The fire was first discovered by Mrs. Carl B. Jacobson, who saw it from her flat in the Imperial block, and turned in the alarm. The fire must have been burning for some time, as it was not noticed until it had broken the front windows in the building and the flames were leaping half way across Seventh street.

In the opinion of many, the conflagration started in the bowling alley above the garage, and burned its way to the first floor near the front of the building. The floor of the bowling alley is still standing, though badly charred, as is all of the interior woodwork that is left on the first floor.

Two new Oldsmobile touring cars and a new seven passenger Hudson sedan, standing in the showroom at the front of the garage, are said to be a total loss. An Oldsmobile coupe and a sedan, also new, were taken out, but are quite badly damaged. Three used cars, owned by the Bane Auto Co., are also damaged, and several cars left at the garage for storage, including the W. E. Brockway delivery truck.

Firemen Do Heroic Work
The firemen did heroic work in keeping the flames confined to the one building. Quite a strong head wind was blowing from the southwest, it is said, but the fire was brought under control before it had an opportunity to burn through the roof. The heat was so great that one of the large show windows in the Gruenhagen Co. across the street was cracked, as was also the window of the Patek Furniture Co. The only other damage to the latter's building, which joins the garage on the north, was the loss of the awning.

Insurance Carried
It is stated that $16,000 insurance was carried on the Bane building, and $2,000 on the bowling alley above, operated by R. E. Stephenson. Mr. Bane stated that insurance was also carried on the stock of new cars.

Much credit is due the Water and Light Board for the excellent water pressure that was maintained during this fire. Four lines of hose were kept playing on the building, with a pressure of over one hundred pounds. This, it is said, is the highest pressure that has ever been given during a fire for the past ten or twelve years. With such a force it was possible for the firemen to make quick work of the flames, keeping them limited to only the one building.

This is the second time within the last decade that fire has destroyed the building at this location. The previous fire, some nine years ago, left nothing but the side wall standing.

MR. OPSAHL HURLED TO STREET

Lay Unconscious For a While, Picked up by Mr. Greenwood and Taken to His Home

A. M. Opsahl is confined to his bed today from injuries received about 6 o'clock Tuesday evening, when a Ford car driven by Wm. R. Greenwood struck him, the accident occurring at the intersection of North Sixth and Kingwood streets.

It is stated that Mr. Opsahl was riding home on his bicycle, and Mr. Greenwood, driving east on Kingwood, did not see him in time to avoid the collision.

The force of the impact was so great that it threw Mr. Opsahl on to the boulevard in front of the W. A. Spencer home, where he lay for a few minutes unconscious. He regained his senses and asked to be taken to his home instead of to a hospital, which Mr. Greenwood did.

It is reported that the injured man is resting easier today, after a restless night. The doctors state that no bones are broken nor any internal injuries suffered, as was at first feared. His body is said to be a mass of bruises, however.

The bicycle upon which he was riding is a total wreck.

Gentlemen:

Att: Mr. Ben Dunham

We wish to thank you for your order for ten Gyrafoam Washers. We are sorry to say, however, that we cannot make shipments of the ten machines promptly as we are holding orders at this time for over six thousand machines.

We will, however, give you two machines at this time. In view of the fact that our factory has increased production from ten per day at the time of starting with this particular model to three hundred per day, and the fact that we are further behind on orders now than we have been at any time, indicates that this machine is meeting with great success, wherever it is being shown.

If you will just have a little patience with us Mr. Dunham, we assure you that there will be a time when we can give you more prompt service on your orders.

Thanking you for the nice business that you are favoring us with, we are

ASHES to ASHES

Consider the ash pile. You know the one we mean—the one that clutters up the basement and the back-yard every spring. The same ash pile that Father looks at, notes its size, remembers a winter of shoveling ashes, and resolves to see another coal dealer for next fall's order. Eliminate the ash pile from your next load of coal. Consolidation Elkhorn Coal and Ziegler Nut, by actual laboratory tests, contain less ash than any other high-grade coals. It will reach you absolutely free from impurities and dirt—not a piece of slate, bone or rock in an entire carload—95% pure coal. Consolidation Elkhorn and Ziegler Nut are practically ashless—less than a bushel to a ton—no clinkers, and so low in sulphur content that even screenings cannot fire from spontaneous combustion. Your order placed with us for either hard or soft coal will be handled promptly and properly.

Brainerd Electric Company,
Brainerd, Minn.

Gentlemen:

Att: Mr. Ben Dunham

We wish to thank you for your order for ten Gyrafoam Washers. We are sorry to say, however, that we cannot make shipments of the ten machines promptly as we are holding orders at this time for over six thousand machines.

We will, however, give you two machines at this time. In view of the fact that our factory has increased production from ten per day at the time of starting with this particular model to three hundred per day, and the fact that we are further behind on orders now than we have been at any time, indicates that this machine is meeting with great success, wherever it is being shown.

If you will just have a little patience with us Mr. Dunham, we assure you that there will be a time when we can give you more prompt service on your orders.

Thanking you for the nice business that you are favoring us with, we are

Yours truly,

ASHES to ASHES

Consider the ash pile. You know the one we mean—the one that clutters up the basement and the back-yard every spring.

The same ash pile that Father looks at, notes its size, remembers a winter of shoveling ashes, and resolves to see another coal dealer for next fall's order.

Eliminate the ash pile from your next load of coal.

Consolidation Elkhorn Coal and Zeigler Nut, by actual laboratory tests, contain less ash than any other high-grade coals. It will reach you absolutely free from impurities and dirt—not a piece of slate, bone or rock in an entire carload—95% pure coal.

Consolidation Elkhorn and Zeigler Nut are practically ashless—less than a bushel to a ton—no clinkers, and so low in sulphur content that even screenings cannot fire from spontaneous combustion.

Your order placed with us for either hard or soft coal will be handled promptly and properly.

NEW RULE TO KEEP FOOTBALL CLEAN

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Dec. 5.—Starting next fall and remaining effective as long as the signed agreement endures, Yale, Harvard and Princeton will not be permitted to make use of "transfers" on their varsity football teams.

"Transfers" are students who come to one college from another and, as applied to athletics, the term means players who have engaged in athletics for another college. Preparatory schools, of course, are excepted.

This policy was adopted by the "Big Three" in furtherance of the desire to remove collegiate football from the temptations of having inducements made, directly or indirectly, to cause the transfer of good athletes from smaller to larger colleges.

Two of Yale's finest players on the 1923 eleven—Richeson, quarterback, and Miltstead, tackle—were transfers, but unless the agreement made was retroactive, any transferred athletes at Yale, Harvard or Princeton this year will not be made ineligible.

LeGendre, the fine Princeton back, was also a transfer, as he played with Richeson on the Tulane University team.

No doubt there were several other good players on the three teams who would not have been permitted to play if the rule had been passed before it was.

In providing so many safeguards to remove collegiate football from any taint of professionalism or any motives unethical from a pure amateur viewpoint, college athletic heads have been accused of taking their football too seriously.

When the warning has been sounded and the cry is raised at the end of each season that football must be saved, the neutrals from the side-lines are prompted to inquire: "Saved from what?"

Carelessness, however, has allowed evils to creep up from behind, armed with a big sock in other sports, and perhaps it is well that those who want to keep football as one of the few sports above reproach, should act on the theory that it is better to apply the ounce of prevention rather than seek the pound of cure.

Theoretically, it is sound to bar transfers from tramping around from college to college and practically it will be approved by many coaches who have had some strenuous times in dealing with "transfers."

REJUVENATING OLD PLUGS OF RACE TRACK

Paris, Dec. 5.—The racing clubs of Paris are divided as to whether a horse rejuvenated with monkey glands should be permitted to race on French tracks.

Half the members are against the proposition and the other half is in favor of it. Many of the stewards assert that any doctoring of thoroughbred saviors of doping and they state that sportsmen should not let down the bars to permit anyone to monkey with the horses.

Others state that if the experiments are successful it would be a great boon for the horses and that racing theoretically is aimed to develop better animals.

MAROON LEADER NEXT YEAR TO BE GOWDY

Chicago, Dec. 5.—University of Chicago gridder has selected Franklin Gowdy of St. Joseph, Mich., to lead them through the 1924 season. Gowdy, for two years a star tackle on the Maroon football machine, was nominated together with Harry Thomas, Elmer Lampe and Joe Pondelik.

Pondelik and Lampe were eliminated on the first two ballots and two additional ballots were taken with Gowdy and Thomas tied. Austin McCarty joined the voting on the third ballot and cast his slip for Gowdy.

GREEK ATHLETES HELD UP AS MODEL

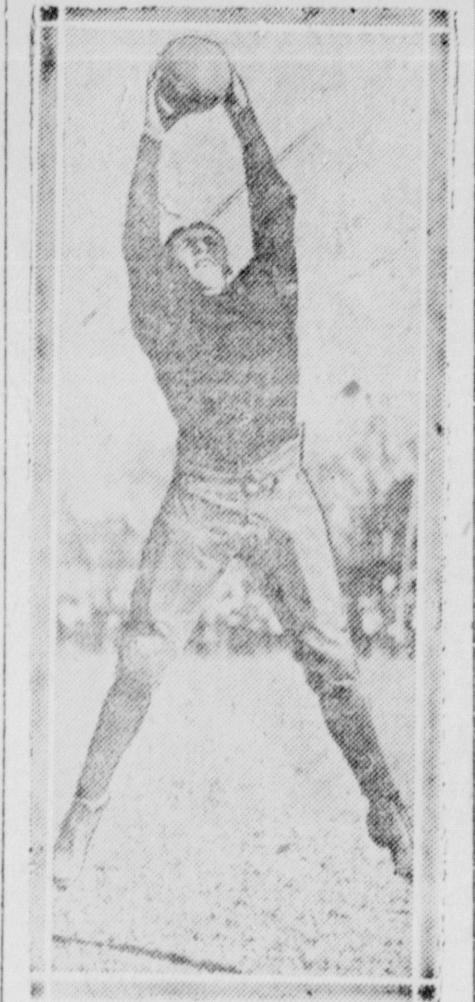

Urbana, Ill., Dec. 5. — Physical training should form the same integral part of a university education for the modern student as for the ancient Greek, a report by the commission on athletics at the University of Illinois said today.

The report declared that the development of healthful bodies should be a co-ordinate part of scholastic training, a policy established by Greek universities of the past. It urged that the present system of intercollegiate athletics should be kept as a stimulus for intramural sports and for more general participation of students in athletics.

BATTLING SIKI IN WAR DANCE ON BROADWAY

New York, Dec. 5.—Batling Siki, Senegalese, who achieved pugilistic fame by knocking out Georges Carpentier, provided Broadway with a thrill yesterday with the aid of a quantity of synthetic gin, a wrinkled dress suit and a pair of expensive patent leather shoes.

He obviously had made a night of it, and part of the day, when he appeared on Broadway at Forty-fourth St. He craved attention. So he emitted one of his native war cries. He got attention. The crowd that blocked traffic formed a ring and the singular one executed as nifty a war dance as ever was trod upon the hot sands of his native Senegal.

He moved up a block to Forty-fifth St., taking his audience and his enthusiasm with him. He repeated his performance at each cross town street until he reached Forty-eighth, when he was told that the police were on his trail. He disappeared in a taxi.

It was Siki's first escape from his manager in a week. His latest adventure occurred when he fled his training camp with $1,000 which rolled away in a flood of alcohol.

His manager was still looking for him today.

NOTRE DAME MAY PLAY NORTHWESTERN

Chicago, Dec. 5.—Northwestern university today opened negotiations with Notre Dame for a grid game to be played in Evanston next fall. Athletic Director Dana M. Too Much of a Good Thing

"It is six years since I had my first stomach trouble. It rapidly grew worse. My food would not digest and I was reduced to skin and bone. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. New York.—Richard Bennett (insert), the actor, agreed with his wife a short time ago to live in separate apartments, the former taking one daughter, Barbara, 17, who is in his supporting cast, requiring that she be home an hour after each performance. When she violated Dad's curfew and drove up to the door late with an actor, it is alleged, that Dad attempted to use his cane on both, with the result that the mother and the police appeared in the street scene that followed. After much argument Barbara left her father for the shelter of her mother's home. Photo shows Barbara, at right, with her mother and younger sister, Joan.

At the New Park tonight and Thursday audiences are finding the theme fully as appealing as when it was first presented by the Prodigal Son.

Actress, 17, Refused to be Spanked for Violating Actor Dad's Curfew Order

New York.—Richard Bennett (insert), the actor, agreed with his wife a short time ago to live in separate apartments, the former taking one daughter with him and Mrs. Bennett the other. He set a fixed hour for his daughter, Barbara, 17, who is in his supporting cast, requiring that she be home an hour after each performance. When she violated Dad's curfew and drove up to the door late with an actor, it is alleged, that Dad attempted to use his cane on both, with the result that the mother and the police appeared in the street scene that followed. After much argument Barbara left her father for the shelter of her mother's home. Photo shows Barbara, at right, with her mother and younger sister, Joan.

OUCH! LUMBAGO PAIN RUB BACKACHE AWAY

Kidneys cause backache? No! Listen! Your backache is caused by lumbago, sciatica, or a strain, and the quickest relief is soothing, penetrating St. Jacob's Oil. Rub it right on your painful back, and instantly the soreness, stiffness and lameness disappears. Don't stay crippled! Get a small trial bottle of St. Jacob's Oil from your druggist and limber up. A moment after it is applied you'll wonder what became of the backache or lumbago pain.

Rub old, honest St. Jacob's Oil whenever you have sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism or sprains, as it is absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.—Adv.
